

CADAT / CDAA Joint Annual Conference April 21 – 22, 2023

---

Melissa Guillen, RDA

Brittney Talmadge, CDA, OA
Brittney.talmadge@ultradent.com

Name of Course: *Teaching Methodology for Sealants - The Proper Technique of Placing Pit & Fissure Sealants

Course Description:

This hands-on course will include methodology, review the history of sealants, discuss sealant placement pitfalls and demonstrate successful sealant placement.

Educational Objectives:

- Learning the of history of sealants
- Understanding the importance of placing sealants
- Understanding the different techniques on sealant placement
- Understanding why sealants fail
- Develop skills and technique on sealant placement by placing sealant from start to finish

Speaker Bio – Brittney Talmadge

Brittney has been in the dental industry for eight years. Her experience includes working as a dental assistant and a treatment coordinator in an Orthodontic office in the Bay Area. She also received her OAP in 2018. Brittney now works as a territory account manager for Ultradent Products, Inc. She has received extensive training from Ultradent on dental products and helps to educate offices on what features are important in various products they use every day including sealant material.

Speaker Bio – Melissa Guillen

Melissa Guillen is a foreign Dentist, currently working as a Technical Product Advisor at Ultradent Products, with 17 years of experience in the dental field. Specialized in Operative Dentistry and have experience as a college professor for more than a decade. Dr Guillen uses her experience to train the sales force in the California region on dental materials and procedures.